Allowed a pitiable Muslim who has lived in Europe for a number of years. And they said to the Prophet, O messenger, we have no say in the matter to marry any of the wives of the Prophet, not even from amongst his wives, let alone his sister. So he said, Please understand that all of this is by the command of Allah. So they said, O messenger of Allah, whom do we have to thank for these women? The Messenger of Allah said, You have thanked the idols of the tribe of Lawwah. The Prophet of Allah referred to idols and tribes at the same time. Of course, the idols of Lawwah were the Jews. The Messenger of Allah. And this one woman that you are referring to is the daughter of Abu Sufyan, in which case Allah will keep the honour of the family intact. And for the woman who is from a family that has a child, he would give her to her husband, and the man would not have the right to claim her. And for the unmarried one he would send her back to her family. And Allah does not throw away His slaves. And the following day, some people came to the Prophet and said - O messenger of Allah, Abu Sufyan, the tribe of Khuz'ah had entered upon you, and they have taken your pledge of Islam. So he said, They had taken a pledge of Islam, and what is the pledge of Islam? The pledge of Islam is the pledge that you will not exceed in loyalty to Allah and His messenger, and will be faithful to Him, and will not doubt, and that you will always be patient, and will always be truthful. So when they heard the message of Islam, they gave their pledge of Islam. And they did not change anything in the oath that they had taken. But they knew in their hearts that these people, whose daughter they had taken as a wife, had changed something in their oath. So the message of Islam was sent to them, and Allah sent against them the people of Ghatafan and Fadak, and were killed, and God will not accept the repentance of the polytheists. (T'n bn. 1 / 1. Ba'da 1375 / 25th August, 600 Hijri. But the women of the family were left alone, as Allah will keep the honour of the family intact. As for the woman, she is still amongst us today. But her father was later exiled from Madinah as 82157476af
